Scott Lloyd, CCIM, RPA, Appointed to the Chair of the Board of Trustees for Harry P. Leu Gardens

Orlando, FL — Scott Lloyd, CCIM, RPA, Principal of Lloyd Commercial Advisors, LLC (LCA), has been appointed Chair of the Board of Trustees for the esteemed Harry P. Leu Gardens, one of Central Florida's most treasured cultural and botanical institutions.

Lloyd, who was originally appointed to the Board of Trustees on February 1, 2025, succeeds outgoing Chair James Whited, who concluded his term in accordance with board governance guidelines.

A long-standing civic leader in the Orlando community, Lloyd brings a depth of public service and governance experience to the role. His prior appointments include service on the City of Orlando Board of Zoning Adjustment and the Code Enforcement Board, as well as five years as Treasurer of the Thornton Park Main Street District. He currently serves as Treasurer of the Downtown Orlando Partnership, reinforcing his continued commitment to the strategic growth and stewardship of the urban core.

"I am honored to lead such a dedicated and accomplished group of trustees serving Harry P. Leu Gardens," said Lloyd. "The Board's passion and expertise are exceptional, and we are entering a pivotal period for the Gardens. As we evaluate a forward-looking master plan, our focus will be on thoughtful community engagement and collaboration with City leadership to ensure this cherished asset continues to evolve and thrive for generations to come."

Leu Gardens is currently exploring a comprehensive master planning initiative aimed at enhancing its infrastructure, programming, and visitor experience, coinciding with its 65th anniversary in 2026.
